

K-REACH Compliance Service

The Act on Registration and Evaluation of Chemicals, also known as K-REACH, was officially implemented on January 1, 2015. The main purpose of the Act is to establish a chemical substance management system for chemical substance registration, risk assessment, authorization and restriction in order to protect human health and environmental safety. It requires that all new substances and over 1 ton per year of existing chemical substances manufactured in or imported into Korea be subject to notification or registration obligations prior to manufacturing or importation activities. Registered Suppliers of Chemicals need to transfer information to downstream users or distributors.

On March 20, 2018, the Korean Ministry of the Environment (MoE) issued the amendment to K-REACH, which was implemented on January 1, 2019.
